

Patricia Caire

Exhibition at Artists Space

January 5 - February 9

Title: " BLACK AND LIGHT PASSINGS "

Patricia Caire's installation consists of human scale silhouettes, painted black on translucent acetate. Individual pieces are suspended within the space, creating an ambiguous and flexible narrative through the structuring of varied perspectives and light sources.