

Statement of Intent for Artist's Space

I make art pieces meant to be hung on walls. The scale, materials, colors, etc. that I've employed in making these paintings are the subjective properties that best suit my notion of the contemporary art object. Involved in their creation is an attempt to subvert the nature of the object's preciousness while simultaneously using a painting's palpable charms to enhance that selfsame issue.

Jim Goss

June 28, 1980