

SEPTEMBER 29 –
NOVEMBER 5

*Opening:
Thursday, September 29, 6–8pm*

ARTISTS SPACE

223 West Broadway
Gallery Hours:
Tuesday – Saturday, 11–6pm

MIN JOONG ART: A NEW CULTURAL MOVEMENT FROM KOREA

Byungsoo Choi
Durung
Boksoo Jung
Yongtai Kim
Kwangju Visual Art Research Institute
Jonggu Lee
Ocksang Lim
Jungki Min
Yoon Oh
Our Film Yard Collective
Buldong Park
The Photo Collective for Social Movement
People's Art School
Sang Kyeidong Community
Chang Song

An exhibition of multi-disciplinary work and video by Korean artists who are cutting across sociopolitical, economic and aesthetic boundaries in order to repossess a more truly Korean cultural identity as opposed to one influenced by the West and Japan.

I MISS THE REVOLUTION

organized by Valerie Smith
An installation from the Living Museum at Creedmoor Psychiatric Center by Bolek
Greczynski and the crew of the Battlefields Project.

For the last 3 years, Bolek Greczynski has been working on a multi-media installation in collaboration with the patients/artists of Creedmoor Psychiatric Center in Queens, with whom he has created The Living Museum, a 20,000 square foot environment that houses the Battlefields Project.

CULTURAL POLITICS BETWEEN THE FIRST AND THIRD WORLDS

Films, videotapes and a panel discussion
presented by Artists Space and The Collective for Living Cinema in conjunction with Min Joong Art.

Saturday, Oct. 15, 8pm:
Recent documentaries from Korea.

Sunday, Oct. 16, 8pm:
Panel discussion with
Hal Foster,
Lucy Lippard
and Wan Kyung Sung.