

ART PICKS

Gerald Marzorati

SELECTIONS For her first show at Artists Space, director Linda Shearer has drawn 13 diverse artists from the overstuffed Unaffiliated Artists Slide File. A favorite? Jay G. Coogan, who cuts wood into naive shapes, gives them the illusion of volume with white and black paint, then fastens the results to walls and floor. His cluttered installation could pass for the Jetsons' playroom. Artists Space, 105 Hudson St., 226-3970, through April 25.
