

Artists Space

September 27 through
November 3, 1990

OPENING: Thursday
September 27, 5-8 pm

223 West Broadway
at Franklin St.

Main Gallery

SELECTIONS: Aljira & Artists Space

Organized by Carl E. Hazlewood of ALJIRA, A Center for Contemporary Art, Newark

James Andrew Brown
Cicely Cottingham
Ming Fay
Paul Gardère
Renée Green
Zhang Hongtu
Barbara Klein
Franc Palaia
John Salvest
Rafael Sanchez
Dui Seid

Annual exhibition chosen from our Artists File, a computerized slide registry of over 3,000 artists. ALJIRA's participation inaugurates the File's expansion to include New Jersey. The Artists File is open free of charge to artists, critics, collectors and the public. All NY and NJ artists are welcome to join.

Project Room

Joel Katz HISTORY LESSONS

Organized by Micki McGee

A media installation that reconstructs a classroom environment to examine the transmission of American global perspectives through pedagogy and popular culture.

Underground

PAUL RAMIREZ

An installation of sculpture by this Brooklyn artist. With this show, Artists Space initiates a new downstairs exhibition space to present the work of artists selected from the Artists File by the Artists Space staff.

Video Program

TEACHING TV

Organized by Chris Bratton

A national survey of recent videotapes promoting media literacy, produced by students in collaboration with media educators, artists and video-makers.

Participants include: Appalshop, KY; The Carver Center for Creative & Performing Arts, AL; Dearborn High School, MI; Educational Video Center, NY; Film in the Cities, MN; Foxfire, GA; Joan Jubela, NY; Long Beach Museum of Art, CA; The Maine Alliance of Media Arts Centers, ME; Betsy Newman, NY; Northwest Film & Video Center, OR; Rise & Shine Productions, NY; Pam Sporn & Satellite Academy, NY; Southwest Alternate Media Project, TX; The Taft High School Media Project, MA; Youthvisions, RI and many others.

Video program runs continuously during gallery hours.

Evening Events

Friday, NOVEMBER 9
Selections from Teaching TV

Saturday, NOVEMBER 10
Premiere of a new video by Julie Zando

$5 ($3 students & seniors) 8pm