Artists Space, established in 1973, is a not-for-profit culturally broad-based center for contemporary arts and arts service organization. We are committed to the presentation of work, in all disciplines, by unaffiliated artists; to ignoring the arbitrary and capricious boundaries between disciplines; to exploring non-hierarchical methods of developing programs and to providing artists with a forum through which they may refine and define our culture.

Artists Space programs are made possible, in part, with public funds from the New York State Council on the Arts, the National Endowment for the Arts (a federal agency), the New York City Department of Cultural Affairs and Materials for the Arts (a program of D.C.A. and the NYC Department of Sanitation). Additional assistance for Artists Space programs and activities is generously provided by artists, individual members, friends, Foundations and Corporations.

"Just a song at twilight when the lights of life are low. Flickering shadows come and go. Though the heart be weary, sad the day and long still to us at twilight comes love’s old sweet song."
(Lyrics from my grandparents Mama Frances and Daddy James’ favorite song.)

Sacred Harp Singing
"Ballstown" Led by Ernestine Tipton of Birmingham, Alabama 1945
"Edom" Led by Mrs. Delilah Denson Posey of Birmingham, Alabama 1945

"To us at twilight..." is dedicated to the memory of Frances Wilson Cartwright.

"To us at twilight..." was originally presented at P.S. 122 and later traveled to California where it was presented by the Contemporary Art Forum in Santa Barbara and New Langton Arts in San Francisco. Several of the "wall dresses" were first shown in an exhibition curated by Suzanne Nicholas in 1991 titled "Race and Culture" at Gallery 494 in New York City.

Special thanks to Jerri Allyn, Tom Brazil, Howard Davis, Dee Evetts, Carlos Gutierrez-Solana, Deb Levine, Donna McAdams, Laura Miller, Gary L. Nickard, Tamar Rogoff, Mike Spiegel, Daniel Zippi and the Staff of Artists Space.

I am currently working on a piece which is tentatively titled "Caspersen Beach Is Washing Away." This work will be an interactive installation of ephemera and objects -- artist’s books, stories, poems and sandboxes to dig and discover in -- a cross between science class nature display, masterpiece collection and archaeological artifacts. The text for the piece is a kind of rambling monologue/tour encompassing historical information about Caspersen Beach, a unique archaeological site known for its black sand and off-shore dinosaur deposits, tall shark tales, tidal influences, werewolves, little known facts about "full moon mollusk fecundity", why water is "round" and angel sightings.

My original intention was to present a small section of this work-in-progress, but after considering the matter, I decided to let the women and dresses stand on their own. So in preparation for this showing at Artists Space I developed further the installation of "wall dresses."

- Alyson Pou
